Manhattan His Excellency Gérard Araud and the Young Patrons Circle of American Friends of the Louvre hosted their annual Soirée au Louvre on May 12. The Louvre has recently launched a bold and ambitious contemporary art program, which invites reputable artists to showcase their vision of the Museum's collections, and Soirée au Louvre screened the most recent venture of this line-up by photographer Nan Goldin, entitled Scopophilia. Guests enjoyed Grey Goose cocktails and carried on the reverie at the afterparty at Lavo.
